There was a howl that night
A howling like they never heard before
A cry so loud old grand-dad almost hit the door
He said, "I love this child as much as any one
That she ever bore
But I thank the Lord we won't be having any more."

Verse 2:

Then the baby heard the sweetest sound he'd ever heard
In tones so beautiful he hung on every word
She sang, "Hush, my love, granny's little dove
Is going to take to the sky."
It was on such a night he learned to fly like a bird

CHORUS I:

Now the years have passed and memories come and go
He hears that voice that rocked him gently so
A calm will descend
And there's peace at the end of that darkest night

I stop at my favourite spot
I never meant to spend much money
But I guess, I spent a lot
Now I'm drivin' through our neighbourhood
And pull in up our lane

To help me to explain

I know it's an addiction and I know it causes you pain
I know I'm playin' a loser's game that I can't never win

Verse 2:

And I marched out behind you
Straight to the garden store
